Dear Dipak,

I was very much pleased to meet and talk with you together with Edward. To make myself full understood, I would like to highlight the following two events:

1. Qingdao International Fair for SME Procurement and Cooperation 2019
   This event will be export oriented from the perspective of China. Fourteen categories of products will be available for foreign buyers. The Fair mainly will focus on those industries as home appliances, mechanical equipment, chemical engineering, clothing, food, rubber, automobile and components, rail transportation equipment, marine engineering, electronic information, construction material, new material, new energy, intelligent manufacturing and others.

   We will cover local transportation, accommodation, hotel and food for one person of each company, but the participant will have to pay RMB200 for registration.

2. China (Luohu) International Food Expo. Autumn Fair 2019
   This event will be import oriented, since our government is now encouraging import of quality food from those countries along the belt and road.

   The following points are for your reference:
   1) Coverage: 16,000 sq.m
   2) 626 standard booths (3 x 3) m2
   3) No. of Visitors: 100,000
   4) Professional Buyers: 8,000

   Professional Buyers will be invited from the following industries:

   Uniqueness:
   1. All the resources of 17th China (Luohu) International Food Expo will support this Autumn Food Fair
   2. Well Packed Festival Food Gifts
   3. Well Arranged Matchmaking (Exhibitors will meet the right buyers)

   I do wish that business people can take full advantages of these two events to expand trade between our two countries. I appreciate it very much that you will work on that and circulate this information among your business people either they are in China or in your great country.

   The attachment is Inivation Letter and Schedule&Application for Qingdao China-Foreign SME Procurement and Cooperation Fair for your reference.

   If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact me.

   I will work closely with you and I will be looking forward to hearing good news from you soon.
